BRODHEAD

The stockholders of The Brodhead Fair Association will meet at 1:00 o'clock next Saturday afternoon to elect a Board of Directors for the management of the Association's business for 1918. The directors will meet immediately after the stockholders' meeting to elect officers. Secretary Grapville Owens will make a concise report of the financial condition of the association and the prospects for the coming season. Every stockholder is expected to be present. —Otis Hale is here with his mother and other relatives from Detroit. Otis has a good position there and will return shortly to begin his duties for the new year. —The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Gentry and Bradley Brown, took place at the residence of L. N. Bowling, the officiating minister, instead of Jellico, Tenn., as reported last week. These are splendid young people and have many young friends here who join us in wishing them much happiness. —Miss Dora Vance, one of the graded teachers here spent the holidays with home folks at Upton. —The family of B. T. Young have German measles. It is said that this character of measles ordinarily amount to little with the sufferer, yet the fact that there is the word German to designate this kind of measles from other measles makes it almost unbearable at present. —Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robins, of Corbin, were here during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sowder. —Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Durham and little son, Austin, were with the family of J. F. Watson during Christmas. —I. W. Tate was in Louisville last week. —Miss Hallie Barnes was the guest of her cousin, Miss Amy Proctor, at Mt. Vernon, recently. —Miss Ella Carson was with home folks during the holidays from Colchord, W. Va., where she has a good position. She returned New Year's morning to take up her duties there. —Miss Amy Proctor was here last Sunday the guest of Miss Hallie Barnes. —At the regular election of officers of Brodhead Lodge of Masons, December 27, Sylvan, Bordas was chosen Master; W. H. Anderson, Senior Warden; W. O. Yaden, Junior Warden; J. M. Roberts, Secretary; A. M. Hiatt, Treasurer; Guy Roberts, Senior Deacon; J. W. Moore, Junior Deacon; Emmett Maddox and J. L. Pilkenton, Stewards; and W. J. Owens, Tyler. —Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Proctor, of Mt. Vernon, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mack Barnes here last week. —Chas. Rash, of Torrent, Ky., was with his mother, Mrs. L. N. Vanhook, here this week. —Eld. L. N. Bowling held services at Goshen Christian church, in Lincoln county, last Sunday. He will preach there one Sunday each month during the year, and with one Sunday here, one at Paint Lick and one at Nicholasville takes up his entire time.

We over looked one statement that our Livingston friend made that we desire to call to the attention of the readers, and that was made by him in trying to get out of a trap that he got himself into with reference to the amount of Liberty Loan Bonds subscribed for in his town. In his first statement, and the correct one too, he rather boasted about the people there subscribing for twenty-five hundred dollars worth of bonds and asked us if we could say as much. Afterward he happened to learn that our subscriptions amounted to a great deal more, and he came out the next week by saying that he intended to say twenty-five thousand instead of what he did say. Now the facts are that his first statement was the correct one, and that the banking institution at that place subscribed for the twenty-five hundred dollars worth of the bonds and that it did not come from one or more individual patriotic citizens of his town. We will not comment on this affair further, but desire to call the attention of our good friend to the fate of Ananias and his wife, Sapphira. —The Red Cross campaign that has just ended here was certainly attended with marked success, and undoubtedly there were never a more loyal force any where than those who solicited members here, and among those who deserve special mention are: Mesdames W. F. Carter, L. N. Bowling, Jop. Al. bright and Miss Thelma Pilkenton. Bill Arch Hayes and A. G. Orider in the Ottawa and Hiatt sections rendered valuable service. The individual report of Mrs. W. F. Carter was eighty adults and twenty-five juniors, the honor of which she wishes given to Uncle Arch Albright who held the fort at home while she solicited members. During this campaign Uncle Arch had two cases of German measles to contend with. It seems that we have German intrigue in every thing we attempt to do. J. F. Harris, aged 77, died at the home of son, John Harris, at 8:30 Tuesday evening of infirmities incident to old age. His wife has been confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Martin, for the past several months, and her condition is very serious. Mr. Harris' health began to fail some six or eight months ago and during all this time he has been unable to come to see his wife. His remains were buried in the Sayers burying ground near his home Wednesday afternoon. Besides his widow he is survived by five daughters and one son as follows: Mrs. P. W. Tharp, Mrs. W. H. Sowder, Mrs. R. S. Martin, Mrs. J. E. Wallin, and John Harris, of this place, and Mrs. Henry Shubert, of Defiance, Ohio. Mr. Harris was one of Rockcastle's best citizens and has done as much hard work as any man of his strength, being a cripple. —J. J. Painter, of Stanford, was here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Uncle Fount Harris. Mr. Harris and the late George E. Painter father of J. J. Painter, were staunch friends and for a number of years had lived on adjoining farms. —A little girl of Mrs. Ellen Rash was so anxious to become a member of the Junior Branch of the Red Cross that she borrowed twenty-five cents and agreed to do a piece of work each Monday for five weeks to pay the twenty-five cents, and has already got a credit on the debt. If all the people in this town showed half the amount of enthusiasm as shown by this child it would be less difficult to raise funds of this kind, still, we have no grounds to complain with reference to the Red Cross membership secured here. It is seldom that a home can be found in town that does not display a service flag, and many of these homes show a white star in the center indicating that every member of the family is a Red Cross member. —Miss Bess Sproule left today for LaFollette, Tenn., to visit her cousin, Miss Anna Sullivan.

INCOME TAX MAN COMING.

Collector of Internal Revenue Hughes announces that officers will start from his headquarters on January 1, and on January 2, every one of them will be on the job in the county assigned him, to meet the people and help them make out their income tax returns. The officer assigned to this county will be at Mt. Vernon from Jan. 2nd to Jan. 8th. On his arrival he will inform bankers and postmaster where his office will be located. It will be well for every unmarried person whose net income for 1917 is $1,000 or over, and every married person living with wife or husband whose net income for 1917 is $2,000 or over, to call on the income tax man and learn whether or not they have any tax to pay. Collector Hughes said today. The person subject to tax who doesn't make return in the time prescribed is going to regret it. The government will get after all income tax slackers. There's hardly a business man, merchant or professional man, who won't have to make a return of income. Farmers, as a class, will have to pay the tax. The safe thing to do is for every person who had a total income of $1,000 or $2,000, as the case may be, and who is not sure about what deductions the law allows him, to play it safe by calling on the income tax man. The man in the field will have forms for every body and persons who expect to call on him need not trouble themselves to write to my office for forms.

Mr. H. Rowan Sauley, of Stanford, who has been assigned to Rockcastle arrived Wednesday and is now at the Rockcastle Hotel ready to figure your income, if you owe any. Our advice is that if you think you are in the list, you had better come and talk the matter over with him. If you owe income tax and fail to report Uncle Sam will know it sooner or later and then the consequence will be several times worse than the payment of a little income tax in the proper way.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

F. M. Jones Makes Affidavit

I never have attacked any good work of the Y. M. C. A. I never called them gambling halls. I never said they had dance halls. I have a letter from my seat-mate on the train statement that he is the man that made the statement. I have never done anything except condemn sin and put God first. I did not write, dictate or even ask B. H. Hillard to write his article. I am sorry that the public has been annoyed with such newspaper controversies, for which I am in no way responsible. I am giving monthly money to support Baptist preachers working in connection with the Y. M. C. A.
